

HERITAGE & NATIVE TITLE SERVICES

Native Title in Australia recognises Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander interests and rights to land and water. Developers and proponents are required to comply with legislation under the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth). Integrate Sustainability provides a range of management and advice services to assist clients to navigate all aspects of the Aboriginal Heritage and Native Title processes.

Services include:

- Native Title and heritage legislation awareness.
- Assist and implement community engagement strategies, promoting positive relationships
- Identify native title obligations, conduct due diligence and risk assessments
- Processes and procedures to negotiate, implement and ensure compliance with Aboriginal heritage and native title land access agreements.
- Facilitate meetings with Aboriginal corporations and communities.
- Cultural Awareness Training – assist material development and workshop facilitation.
- Aboriginal Heritage processes, including:
 - Heritage desktop assessments, archival research and data management.
 - Management and coordination of Ethnographic and Archeological heritage surveys.
 - Heritage and land access approvals (including section 16 and section 18 submissions).
 - Aboriginal Heritage Management Plans.
 - Auditing and compliance reviews
- Support the development of environmental monitoring and cultural-heritage management programs

We are also able to provide in-house expertise and professionals for on-ground coverage, support and project implementation.

We understand that the needs of our clients and the needs of the community groups they operate in are different. We will work with clients to tailor an approach to achieve positive outcomes while protecting the rights and interests of the community.
